HECKERS' FARINA, prepared expressly for families, a delicate and appropriate food for all seasons, and one of the most economical, nutritions, and wholesome preparaeconomical, nutritions, and wholesome prepara-tions ever brought to the table, eminently com-bining the gratification of the palate with ample and healthful sustenance of the body. Strictly speaking, Heckers' Farina is neither stringent nor laxative, but restorative, strengen-ing the digestive and absorbent system. In dis-ordered bowels, diarrhae, dysentery, and even in cases of cholera, when food is deemed admissible by the physicians, Heckers' Farina cannot fail to be salutary; and wherever known is extensively by the physicians, Heckers' Farina cannot fait to be salutary; and wherever known is extensively used in hospitals and private practice. The pres-ervation of health or the prevention of sickness is at least as important as the curing of disea e. People in health should therefore use Heckers' Farina freely, as common food, to preserve the in-estimable blessing.

complaints to which females are subject. It assists nature to brace the whole system, check excesses, and creates renewed health and happiness-Less suffering, disease, and unhappiness among ladies would exist, were they generally to adopt the use of this cordial. Ladies who are debilitated by those obstructions which females are liable to, are restored by the use of a bottle or two to bloom and to vigor.

Young Men.—That solltary practice, so fatal to the existence of man, and it is the young who are most ant to become its victims, from an ignorance of the danger to which they subject themselves. Nervous Debility, weakness of the system and premature decay. Many of you may now be suffering, misled as to the cause or source of disease. To those, then, who by excess have brought on themselves premature impotency, involuntary seminal emissions, weakness and shriveling of the genital organs, nervous affection, or any other consequences of unrestricted indulgence of the sensual passions, occasioning the personal passions, occasioning the personal passions. ouncing the felicities of Marriage, lessening both mental and boddy espacity, hold! Henry's invisorating Cordial, a medicine that is purely vegetable, will aid nature to restore those important functions to a healthy state, and will prave of service to you. It possesses rare virtues, is a general remover of disease, and strengthener of the system.

As a Tonic Medicine, it is unsurpassed. We do not place this cordial on a footing with quan medicines, and, as is customary, append a lon list of recommendations, certificates, &c., beginning with "Hear what the Prencher says," and to be allotted at the general meeting in April such like; it is not necessary, for 'Henry's lavig-orating Cordial" only needs a trial to prove that it will accomplish all we say.
